

SAVE THE DATE

Nguzo Saba Conference & Awards Luncheon September 24 - 26, 2010 Los Angeles, California

Celebrating the 45th Anniversary of the The Nguzo Saba and The Organization Us

Conference Theme:

“KAWAIDA, KWANZAA AND THE NGUZO SABA
BEST PRACTICES, CRITICAL THINKING AND CAPACITY BUILDING”

For forty-five years the organization Us and its principal institution, the African American Cultural Center, have promoted the values of the Nguzo Saba (the Seven Principles) as a fundamental means of building and strengthening family, community and culture.

Most widely known as the Seven Principles of Kwanzaa, the Nguzo Saba are used year round to enrich and expand the lives of millions of people and serve as a core vision and value orientation for thousands of programs, projects and institutions throughout the world African community.

The Nguzo Saba 2010 Conference will present models of excellence from persons and organizations around the country who use the Nguzo Saba for cultural grounding and value orientation in a wide variety of areas:

Community and public education
Rites of passage and youth programs
Family and male/female relations
Spirituality and ethics

Economic development
Political organization
Creative production
Physical and psychological well-being

Conference Locations:

Los Angeles Renaissance Hotel
9620 Airport Blvd
Los Angeles, CA 90045

African American Cultural Center (Us)
3018 W. 48th Street
Los Angeles, CA 90043

For more information, please contact
Nguzo Saba Conference 2010
The African American Cultural Center (Us)
3018 W. 48th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90043
Phone (323) 299-6124 s Fax (323) 299-0261
www.Us-organization.org

Dr. Maulana Karenga
Creator of Kwanzaa